This is no Sleight of Hand

By means of which we have been able to keep up the prices and class of Goods we are doing. It is managed by the way the public patronizes us.

FOUR THINGS AT ONCE

Are possible if they work together. Our trade is simply drawn by four horses—four good steady horses instead of one wretched screw or some ill-matched pair. And as we understand thoroughly how to drive the team, they make it possible for us to make good time along the road of trade.

The Adelphi Literary Society gave a charming entertainment at the College on Saturday evening. The girls acquitted themselves well, as they always do, and the music furnished by the young men was excellent. Mrs. Nellie, of Evansville, who was present, answered an invitation to furnish some music, and the company enjoyed an audience with her rendition of some beautiful selections.

THE STATE LINE.

Building Begun at Evansville and it Will be Pushed to an Early Completion.

—TRADE JOURNAL.

Henderson can this morning congratulate herself and send congratulations to the New Haven Friends at the bright prospect of the State Line. The road has been more recently christened, the Ohio and Indiana, the Cincinnati, and the Chatanooga Railway.

This week the building of the city to the south of the Ohio begins. It is known that much work of constructing the road is to be done by the 1st day of this month, the contractor will be paid, and bearing no tolls of his building, may be expected to be in full operation by the 1st of April.

The new road will be built in an abandoned section. But it seems the projectors have been guilty of a want of judgment in selecting the road to be built. The New York market, which is the chief market for the new road, is not far from the Ohio River, and the new road will be in the way of building the road to the market.

Yesterday Judge E. D. Williamson, of the Ohio and Indiana, was elected to the Legislature.

Mr. John J. McElroy is in Louisville, and is to be present at the opening of the session. He came to the city for the purpose of bidding for the new road.

Judge Williamson learns that the work of constructing the road will be completed in time to meet the new road.

He will be present at the opening of the session.
